723		S	-It's hot, hot. -Right. Hot. -It's hard to... breath.
724		S	-It's true. What can you do... -Who are you? Where are you from?

13		S	-Bye. -Good morning. Bye, bye.
	00:02:38	T	in late 2003, Prime Minister Ariel Sharon stunned the world by announcing his plans for a unilateral Israeli withdrawal from the Gaza Strip. a move that would potentially end his political career and change Israel, Palestine and the entire Middle East forever. Israel would soon face a wave of thousands of Internally Displaced People, Peace Refugees, and extremely volatile political strife.	Opening 1
14		S	-This will be the actual border. -Look at the bulldozers.
	00:03:13	T	Kisufim Crossing Southern Gaza Strip
15		S	Yes, this is how it was back then too. That's what it looked like.

17		S	"Kisufim Crossing". Is everything OK?

17a		S	"Kfar Darom will never fall again" "Welcome to Gush Katif"
18	00:03:54	S	I really don't believe it. I was last here 10 years ago.
	00:04:00	T	a couple of decades ago Israel withdrew from the Sinai Peninsula as part of the peace agreement with Egypt. it was the first time an Israeli block of villages, Yamit, was moved within the borders established in the 1948 Independence War. soon after witnessing this first withdrawal, I left Israel. after almost a decade of travelling, I returned to Jerusalem to help build the new Israeli Channel 2 Television. now, for the past few years, I've lived in Canada. in mid-July 2005, one month before the Gaza Pullout I went on a short farewell visit to the 21 Israeli villages dotting the Gaza Strip.	Opening
23a		S	-"Beware of tanks crossing". -Nothing crosses.
24		S	Should we enter Kfar Darom?
25		S	-No, let's go to the beach first. -How do you get to the Beach from here?
26		S	-Straight ahead? -Straight? You are driving towards the Egyptian border.
27		S	-This is the way to the beach... -Look, look at this.
28		S	There sure was something big here... Ah, a big terrorist attack.
29		S	-Do you remember? -Which of the big terrorist attacks?
30		S	The one on the bridge... Here they cross underneath.
31		S	The Palestinians are crossing beneath and the Israelis above.
	00:05:00	T	in mid-July 2005, one month before the Gaza Pullout I went on a short farewell visit to the 21 Israeli villages dotting the Gaza Strip. I was joined by my friend, Dror Marcus, a tour guide and archaeology expert who now lives near the Ancient Temple City of Angkor, Cambodia. the surrealism of what we witnessed, documented and recorded during our visit shook us both to the core. we were soon to discover that we are not the only ones totally unprepared for the following eventful weeks and months to come. this is our personal journey to a land that no longer exists. 412		S	He is fixing kids' bicycles. Hello!
413		S	-What are you filming? -Ah? -What are you filming?
414			-The village. Ah? - The village!
415		S	-Who are you? -This is what I came to tell you. Can I enter?

416		S	-What are you a journalist? -No. Can I enter? -Enter what?
417		S	-Come to talk to you. -Yes you may.
418		S	I was amazed by the house. What a beautiful house.
419		S	Nice to meet you. I am Erez. We are on a farewell visit to the villages.
420		S	-Where are you from? -I live in Canada and Dror lives in Cambodia.
421		S	-And do you live here? -I live here. -This is your home? -Yes.
422		S	This is really an amazing house.
423		S	-You know the vultures that are awaiting the dying animal to drop dead? -Sure.
424		S	This is how the journalists are here. By the thousands.
425		S	These are people that live on the misfortune of other people. That's all.
426		S	-And I don't like people like this. I tell you the truth. -You're right.
427		S	-They are waiting for the blood next month.
428		S	This is why I don't like them and this is the reason I am not welcoming.
429		S	-It's not that I am usually like that. -I understand.
430		S	-The reality made us like this. You see? -I am sorry to hear that.
430a	00:39:00	S	"Tel Katifa". I tell you, this was never here before.
431		S	We used to drive all the way here from Gaza's Shati Refugee Camp.
432		S	-Hello. -Where are you going? -Where do you need to go? -To Jerusalem.
433		S	Only at the end of the day. We are touring the whole area first.
434		S	-Do you want us to at least get you out of here? -No thanks.
435		S	Thank you very much.
440			Where should we go from here, what do you say?
441		S	Should we go south back to Rafiah Yam and from there to Morag?
442		S	Up to you.

445		S	-So beautiful. -They look like Egyptians here.

447	00:40:45	S	They can also shoot from these buildings.
448		S	The Israelis are leaving, why should they shoot?
449		S	There is a clear interest for the Hamas and Jihad to claim
450		S	that they've forced the Israelis out with fire.

451		S	-Rafah houses are 500m away. -Why 500m? It's even less.
452		S	Only 500m from here to the first Rafah houses.

480		S	-No, but I know many that would have. Great view!
481		S	This is totally new. When did they build this? Really recently.
482		S	Totally insane. Simply insane.

496		S	-I don't know. We need to see this again. We failed the test.
497		S	-Again? -Again.
498		S	Now from the beginning. This is a protective wall.
499			There are the houses of the snipers from Rafah.

484		S	-In my opinion they will not leave a thing behind. -Ah?
485		S	-They will wipe this place out. -They will cut the olive trees?
486			No. They will smash them with bulldozers.
