

Surreal a glance at a land that no longer exists

by erez t yanuv barzilay www.ShaiLahProductions.com

Festival Cinemas & Doculink

in association with

Shai Lah Productions :: Documenting Life

invites you & a friend to a benefit screening for director Erez Yanuv Barzilay showcasing his latest production

Surreal

a glance at a land that no longer exists

marking the first anniversary of the Gaza pullout

September 14th 2006 @ 7pm, Fifth Avenue Cinemas
2110 Burrard St., Vancouver, BC

Q&A with director Erez Barzilay & composer Ben Euerby to follow

Proceeds from the fundraiser will benefit local documentarian Erez Yanuv Barzilay, who recently had his entire computer system and work files stolen from a storage locker in Deep Cove, with percentage of donations going towards organizations supporting the rebuilding efforts in Southern Lebanon and Northern Israel.

www.doculink.org

www.ShaiLahProductions.com/Surreal

www.festivalcinemas.ca

Contact:
Telephone Number
Email Address:

Marta E. Weiss, Vancouver Doculink Chapter Coordinator
604-982-0165 | Fax Number 604-982-0164 marta@martaweissproductions.com

Shai Lah Productions  Presents

Surreal

a glance at a land that no longer exists

feature documentary (93') by erez t yanuv barzilay

"Surreal gave me a look at a piece of the world we hear so much about at a moment in time that will never be repeated."

*Danny Singer
West Vancouver, BC, Canada*

"Brilliant work."

*Dor Givon
Tel Aviv, Israel*

"Still blowing the sand out of my eyes. I'm struck. The music is hypnotic – so forlorn and appropriate."

Tom Shandel, Documentary Filmmaker (the innovator behind The Corporation) Cowichan Bay, BC, Canada

a benefit screening for director Erez Yanuv Barzilay

marking the first anniversary of the Gaza pullout

September 14th 2006 @ 7pm, Fifth Avenue Cinemas
2110 Burrard St., Vancouver, BC

Q&A with director Erez Barzilay & composer Ben Euerby to follow